The Court made the following :

ORAL JUDGMENT:

(per The Honourable Sri Devinder Gupta, the Chief Justice)

There is hardly any ground to interfere with the order passed by the learned Single Judge, which is just and reasonable. However, while disposing of the writ petition impugned order was directed to be not given effect till the disposal of the appeal by the appellate authority on the petitioner depositing 50% of the amount demanded within a period of six weeks. Time to deposit the said amount is extended by a period of two months from today.

The Writ Appeal stands disposed of. No costs.
